Article - Health - General

[Previous][Next]

§20–110.

- (a) Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, the following are not civilly liable for taking a blood sample from an individual without consent of the individual or for testing the blood sample, if the blood is taken at the request of a police officer or a sheriff or officer in a sheriff's office for a criminal investigation:
  - (1) A licensed hospital.
  - (2) A physician.
- (3) Any of the following who take the blood in the course of duties at a licensed hospital:
  - (i) A resident.
  - (ii) An intern.
  - (iii) A registered nurse.
  - (iv) A health career technician.
- (b) A person who negligently takes blood samples in a manner otherwise than according to accepted medical practices or who negligently performs tests is subject to civil liability for injury resulting from the person's negligence.

[Previous][Next]